"ICMR-DHR CERTIFICATE PROGRAM FOR GOOD CLINICAL PRACTICE" CALL FOR APPLICATIONS (April–June 2024 Batch)

About the program

The certificate program for Good Clinical practice (GCP) is framed to impart comprehensive training for skills and knowledge to conduct clinical research in strict adherence to the guidelines set forth by the International Committee for Harmonization of GCP guidelines (ICH GCP). This initiative aims to encourage the development of multidisciplinary and multi-sectorial teams dedicated to advancing the field of clinical research as well as foster and promote connections among its trainees and other scientists from universities, research institutes, and similar establishments. By facilitating these collaborations, the program seeks to create an environment of support, growth, and empowerment for all its participants, facilitating their growth as capable and accomplished professionals in the realm of clinical research. The three-month program will be conducted in a hybrid mode, featuring weekly online sessions and two in-person contact sessions at Centre for Clinical Trials and Research (SRM CCTR), SRM Medical College Hospital and Research Centre, Kattankulathur, Tamil Nadu.
