The selection will be based on the academic credentials and interview. All the students who have applied through proper channel will be intimated by mail and information will also be available at the ICMR/ Institute's web site.

- Trainings period will be from January to June 2027 (tentatively). Reservation will be provided as per rules laid by Government of India. The decision of the 'Academic Committee' of the Institute shall be final and no communication in this regard shall be entertained.
- Work done during training shall be treated as Institute's Research. The candidate carrying out the training and their parent institution does not have any right to use the generated data for any objective e.g. publication, other than the dissertation report of the candidate.

Please refer to institute's website <https://nichr.icmr.org.in> for more information about the scientist and research laboratories.

Please note that applications sent by hard copies or by emails to individual scientists/Director will not be considered.

General Guidelines

At present, there is no housing facility at ICMR-NICHR, New Delhi, to host the students. Selected students have to make their own arrangements for accommodation. No TA/DA will be paid to the short-listed candidates for attending personal discussions at ICMR-NICHR, New Delhi. No stipend of any nature will be paid to students inducted in the MSc. Dissertation program at the institute.
